Skier triggered north of Bridger

Texas Meadow Bridger Range 1/19/2020 Code HS-ASu-R2-D2-O Elevation 8000 Aspect SE Latitude 45.84060 Longitude -110.93300 Notes

A skier was skinning uphill, breaking trail and triggered this avalanche on 1/19/20. They reported, " released a small pocket near texas meadow. Maybe 50 ft wide, 2 ft crown and ran 150 ft....I was not caught and nobody was buried or injured. I was skinning up at about 1130...I got to where it was steeper and as I reached thinner snow near rocks I felt a whump. I took one more step and the pocket released."
